CAPELIN's contacts with Boris LEVITSKY - as reported by []

CAPELIN has known L. since 1930, when he was studying philosophy in the Yan Kashimayesh Univ. of Lwow. L. was a member of the OUN, and CAPELIN was his chief from 1934 to 1937.

At the thend of 1950, SAPELIN met L in Munich and from this time on has seen him on frequent occasions. SAPELIN has been able to elicit a great deal of information about the Ukrainian emigration from this contact. SAPELIN has convinced LEVITSKY that he does not belong to either the ZChOUN or the ZPUHVR. During 1951 CAPELIN was in close contact with LEVITSKY and kept MOB informed of all that he learned. In Aug 51 L admitted that he had connections with the Wugo Press Agency, TANJUG, and that he was being paid for reports which he submitted. In Dec LEVITSKY asked Subject if he would be willing to work for the Jugs. CAPELIN discussed the matter with MOB C/O and finally agreed to work for L. Copies of all reports written by CAPELIN for the Jugs have been provided MOB c/O's.
